

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL MEMORANDUM

HB 2978 – SB 3350

June 3, 2010

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENT (018524): Deletes the language of the original bill and adds language that revises the powers and duties for the Department of General Services (DGS). Requires DGS, working through the Commissioner and acting with approval of the Speakers of the Senate and House of Representatives, to take care of and preserve the second floor of the state capitol, including all chambers, galleries, offices, rooms, hallways, balconies, storage areas and other spaces therein, and all associated furniture and fixtures and to keep the same in good order. Increases from four to six the number of assigned parking spaces available to the Offices of the Chief Clerk for the Senate and House of Representatives.

FISCAL IMPACT OF ORIGINAL BILL:

MINIMAL

FISCAL IMPACT OF BILL WITH PROPOSED AMENDMENT:

Increase State Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumptions applied to amendment:

- DGS is responsible for the maintenance of public buildings, including the state capitol and related grounds, under current law. As a result, any increase to state expenditures is considered not significant.
- No new parking spaces will be created for state employees.
- Any increase to state expenditures associated with reassignment of parking spaces is considered to be not significant.
